

A Gateway to High Demand Professions

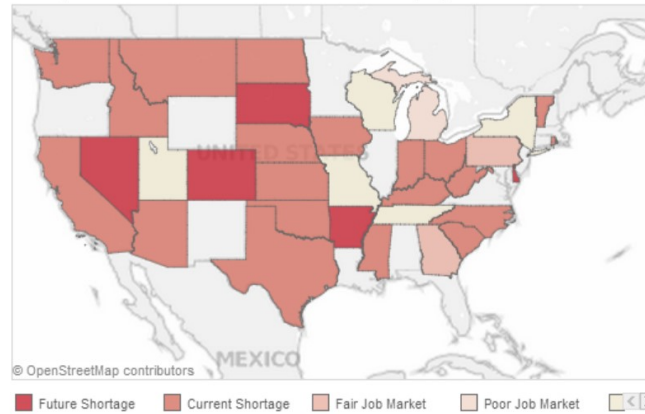

HECT/Family & Consumer Sciences Education provides the first step to a high skill, high wage, high demand career opportunities.

Many of the skills needed for success are included in the standards guiding Home Economics Careers & Technology courses. A few examples of professional jobs related to Family and Consumer Sciences are: apparel and textile design/merchandising; dietetics, education, food and nutrition sciences, human development and family studies, hospitality, interior design, nutrition and fitness, communications, and consumer economics and financial planning.

National Standards for Family and Consumer Sciences:
<http://www.nasafacs.org/national-standards-home.html>

Family and Consumer Science Teachers Employment Outlook

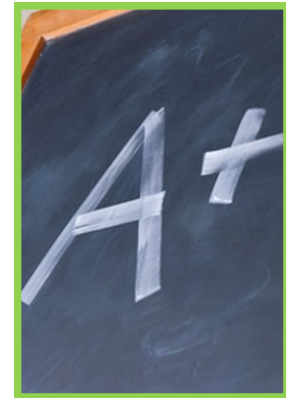

3,600 reasons to Major in Family and Consumer Sciences Education at one of California's Universities

That's how many Family and Consumer Science Education Teachers will be needed by 2018

For More Information Contact:
 Home Economics Teachers Association
 California Dept of Ed
 Home Economics Careers & Technology Unit

Wanted:

Home Economics Careers and Technology Teachers

Find your passion

Education needs YOU!

▶ Classes you could teach

- ◇ Fashion Merchandising
- ◇ Food Science
- ◇ Culinary Arts
- ◇ Child Development
- ◇ Interior Design
- ◇ Fashion, textiles, & Hospitality
- ◇ Developmental Psychology
- ◇ Hospitality Management

Why you should teach.....

Family and consumer sciences curriculum brings to life academic disciplines such as science, technology, engineering and math and connects students to real world applications of such content.

Family and consumer sciences education serves as a foundation for life literacy education. One curriculum goal is to improve students' ability to be successful in today's world.

Where can YOU go to college to become a Home Economics Careers & Technology teacher?

In California:

Sacramento State
San Francisco State
Cal State Northridge
Masters College, Santa Clarita, CA
Point Loma of Nazarene, San Diego

16 other colleges nationwide offer
Home Economics/Family and Consumer Science Teaching Degrees

Teacher testimonies & quotes

- ◇ "I love what I do, it is not a job for me, it's fun every day"-Dawn Maceyka-Great Oak High School, Temecula, CA
- ◇ "There is not a subject more relevant and applicable taught in high schools today. You can and do change lives."-Liss Burson-San Luis Obispo HS, San Luis Obispo, CA
- ◇ "Don't sweat the small stuff"-Liz Aschenbrenner-Sierra High School, Manteca, CA

